

Dear

March 2011

This year is the Sheffield Philharmonic's 75th Anniversary and to mark it we are holding a Celebration evening which consists of a short concert followed by dinner, live music and dancing. Dinner will be a hot buffet and the ballroom will be set out with dining tables.

Date: Saturday 18th June 2011

Venue: City Hall Ballroom

Time: 6.30pm Bar open

7.00pm Concert

8.00pm Dinner

The cost is £30 per ticket.

Also to commemorate this anniversary Bill Smyllie, currently our longest standing member, has gathered information and written a book about the chorus which we are selling at a cost of £6. It is packed with tales of the chorus and some rare photographs.

I hope you will be able to join us for what we hope will be a very enjoyable and memorable evening which we can add to the history of the chorus.

Yours faithfully,
Helen Kirk
