

Dear member of Sheffield Philharmonic Chorus

Our next rehearsal is on Tue 3 February 2026, St Andrew's Church Psalter Lane, 7-9pm. This is the final rehearsal for Arvo Pärt Adam's Lament. Please do not attend this rehearsal if you are not singing in the concert.

Please see the attached notes from the Conductor's Rehearsal.

And see the attached Concert Notice.

N.B. Members should be ready to get quickly on stage directly after 16:15, when Darius will do a warm up, before the rehearsal proper starts at 16:30.

Also see the attached Seating Plan - please be flexible regarding any last minute changes and requests to move.

MESSAGE FROM ROS HOBSON - Event Planning Officer

If you have any additional needs or requirements for our concert on Friday 6 February 2026 please can you let me know by emailing me RosalindHobson@sheffieldphil.org (even if you have emailed me for previous concert). Apologies for requesting this information for every concert but, as I'm still new to this role, I don't want to miss anything or anyone.

Thanks

Ros

Reminder of a Singing Opportunity

Sheffield Youth Orchestra Community Day Saturday 18th April 2026, St Mark's Broomhill. Alice in Wonderland. There will be a joint rehearsal with the orchestra from 3:00pm-4:00pm, for a community performance at 4:15pm-4:45pm. Please contact Kate Wilson on catharinewilson@yahoo.co.uk to sign up. The conductor, River Edis-Smith writes: "Our community days have received national recognition, being shortlisted for 'Best New Project' by Making Music in 2024. We usually have 100+ performers of all ages on these days to come together to rehearse exciting repertoire. Music is adapted and arranged to make it accessible to all players, regardless of standard and since our first community day back in September 2022, they have been free to participate in (but donations are always welcomed)."
